

REFLECTION

In Beer and Theology (BaT) group, we often start a conversation thinking we know what we are talking about. But when we stop and question our language, we know a lot less than we thought.

We recently discussed the topic of "Faith Stories". What does "faith" mean to you? A commitment? Or an exploration? Or a deepening of doubt? Or an orientation to life? Is a story an expression of the "I"? A teaching? A parable? Or a truth?

What faith story would you like to tell? Most of us had heard somebody tell a story about how their faith had turned things around in their life. Your story might also be about a life event. Or perhaps it is about a choice you have made because of your faith. Or the way it has affected your values or the way you see other people.

At BaT group we don't answer the big questions but we try to challenge and deepen them. Giving better stories, allowing truth to deepen.

BaT meet every other Thursday in the Prince of Wales, Cleaver Square from 7-9pm. For more information contact beerandtheologygroup@gmail.com
